Exams (Skill 3)

1. Before exam
   - Review
   - Practice
   - Anticipate questions

2. During exam
   - Answer each question
   - Manage your time

3. After exam
   - Reflect on your performance
   - Ask for feedback

Multiple choice

- Skip questions that you don't know
- Use process of elimination
- Mark your answers before time runs out

True/False

- Read entire statement
- Check for logical inconsistencies
- Eliminate obvious errors
- Don't change your mind

Free answer questions

- Provide evidence and examples
- Be concise
- Avoid language that is too technical

Writing

- Plan
- Draft
- Revises
- Edit

Exams

- Understand what the question is asking
- Read questions carefully
- Think before you answer

Top 3 book recommendations

- Becoming a Master Student by Dave Ellis
- Essential Study Skills by Linda Wong
- What Smart Students Know: Maximum Grades by Adam Robinson

Education is about more than just good grades

- Make learning a daily habit
- Learn from mistakes
- Ask your teacher for clarification

Dealing with difficult questions

- If you get stuck, don't give up
- Seek help from a tutor or study group
- Review your lecture notes

Multiple choice

- Don't change your answer
- Check your work
- Avoid choosing the same answer twice

True/False

- Read entire statement
- Check for logical inconsistencies
- Eliminate obvious errors

Free answer questions

- Provide evidence and examples
- Be concise
- Avoid language that is too technical

Writing

- Plan
- Draft
- Revises
- Edit

Exams

- Understand what the question is asking
- Read questions carefully
- Think before you answer

Top 3 book recommendations

- Becoming a Master Student by Dave Ellis
- Essential Study Skills by Linda Wong
- What Smart Students Know: Maximum Grades by Adam Robinson

Education is about more than just good grades

- Make learning a daily habit
- Learn from mistakes
- Ask your teacher for clarification

Dealing with difficult questions

- If you get stuck, don't give up
- Seek help from a tutor or study group
- Review your lecture notes

Multiple choice

- Don't change your answer
- Check your work
- Avoid choosing the same answer twice

True/False

- Read entire statement
- Check for logical inconsistencies
- Eliminate obvious errors

Free answer questions

- Provide evidence and examples
- Be concise
- Avoid language that is too technical

Writing

- Plan
- Draft
- Revises
- Edit

Exams

- Understand what the question is asking
- Read questions carefully
- Think before you answer

Top 3 book recommendations

- Becoming a Master Student by Dave Ellis
- Essential Study Skills by Linda Wong
- What Smart Students Know: Maximum Grades by Adam Robinson

Education is about more than just good grades

- Make learning a daily habit
- Learn from mistakes
- Ask your teacher for clarification

Dealing with difficult questions

- If you get stuck, don't give up
- Seek help from a tutor or study group
- Review your lecture notes

Multiple choice

- Don't change your answer
- Check your work
- Avoid choosing the same answer twice

True/False

- Read entire statement
- Check for logical inconsistencies
- Eliminate obvious errors

Free answer questions

- Provide evidence and examples
- Be concise
- Avoid language that is too technical

Writing

- Plan
- Draft
- Revises
- Edit